CHRISTMAS KILLING.

John Lunkin Shoots Nathan Powell Through the Heart.

Some colored people gave a dance at a house on North Wilkinson street Thursday night, and John Lunkin, better known as "Doughbelly," a lame young negro, who has heretofore been in all sorts of trouble, went to the house, armed with an old-fashioned navy pistol, and with murder in his heart. He waited upon the outside until Nathan Powell, who has been driving a lumber wagon for Messrs. Congleton Bros., came out, when he stepped up to him with the remark: "I've had it in for you for some time," raised his pistol and fired, the ball entering Powell's back, passed through the heart and came out of his breast. Powell sprang several feet in the air and fell dead.

Lunkin was arrested a few minutes after the shooting by Chief of Police Jeffers and lodged in jail.

The Boys, God Bless Them,

Remembered the old man yesterday with a handsome Christmas present. Just before breakfast the head of the ROUNDABOUT household led us into the parlor and showed us one of the handsomest and most comfortable arm chairs in which we have ever been seated. It bore a card with the following inscription:

"To Mr. Geo. A. Lewis:

Compliments of Your Employees, The Evening Journal, The Sunday Call, The Bindery. Christmas, 1891."

It had been sent over the evening before and hidden away, to be sprung on us at the proper time.

It is just too nice, and when we loil in it in the years to come and puff a fragrant "too-fer" we shall see the faces of the good fellows who sent it in the smoke we puff, and remember the kindly feeling it represents to our dying day.

Christmas at the F. M. I.

We had the pleasure of witnessing the Christmas exercises at the Feeble-Minded Institute, which took place on Thursday evening, and we enjoyed them very much. Each one of the children received a present of some kind and a large bag of candy and nuts. The recitations and songs were rendered in a manner that agreeably surprised us. There was quite a large crowd present, but Dr. Stewart entertained them handsomely.

Smashed a Glass.

A crowd of drunken men standing in front of Councilman Geo. C. Shaws' flour store on Broadway, Thursday night, smashed one of the large plate glass of his show window from pure cussedness. The police made a descent on the crowd, caught one of the gang and locked him up.

Poor Business.

The miserable weather we had on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday ruined the Christmas trade for our merchants, all of whom brought on large stocks of Christmas goods.

The price for all of the best grades of coal—Pittsburg, Campbell's Creek, and Plymouth Raymond—reduced to 12 cents. Call on Frankfort Elevator Coal Company. 12-tf.

The room's in disorder. The cat's on the table, The flower-stand upset, and the mischief to pay; And Johnny is screaming As loud as he's able, For nothing goes right when mamma's away.

What a scene of discomfort and confusion home would be if mamma did not return. If your wife is slowly breaking down, from a combination of domestic cares and female disorders, make it your first business to restore her health. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is without a peer as a remedy for feeble and debilitated women, and is the only medicine for the class of maladies known as "female diseases" which is sold, by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers that it will give satisfaction, in every case, or the money will be refunded. It is a positive cure for the most complicated cases. It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, and a soothing and strengthening nerve, imparting tone and vigor to the whole system. It's a legitimate medicine, too—carefully compounded by an experienced physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below:

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 24, '92. DR. B. J. KENDALL, CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vt. Gent's—It is with the greatest satisfaction that I inform you that I have cured the following diseases: Sweeney, Shoulder Joint Lameness, Stiff Joint Lameness, Shoe-Bolt Lameness in Fore Foot. I am working on Hip-Joint Lameness and will cure that all with Kendall's Spavin Cure. It is the best Liniment for man or beast I have ever used. I recommend it to all horse owners. Horses that I have worked on are valuable, but without your Liniment would be worthless. I have friends who used it for Sprains and Bruises and cured them. They say it is the best they ever used. Yours truly, E. G. S. WELLS.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

Morro, Vt., Dec. 21, 1891. DR. B. J. KENDALL, CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vt. Gent's—In the year 1881 I treated with Kendall's Spavin Cure a Horse Spavin of seven years standing nearly as large as a horse's ear and completely stopped the lameness and removed the enlargement. Have worked the horse very hard ever since, he never has shown any lameness, neither can I see any difference in the size of the hock. Yours truly, E. B. COOLEY.

Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors.
